ROOFING DAY IN D.C.

2023

Each year, roofing professionals gather on Capitol Hill to meet with members of Congress to advocate for our industry. And you know what? We're making a big difference!

Look at just some of the things we helped accomplish together:

- Increased funding for career and technical education
- Advanced legislation that addresses workforce development needs
- Secured a strong buildings component in bipartisan infrastructure legislation

We're not done yet. We're just getting started.

Numbers are important in Washington, D.C., and your voice matters. Registration is only $95 for company representatives and $35 for field workers, students and spouses.
