

THE ROOFING INDUSTRY IS BOOMING!

An estimated
939,000 women are employed in the construction industry.

31% of women who work in construction hold professional and management positions.

By 2020, the number of women in the construction industry is expected to rise 25%.

Roofs are the first line of defense against protecting what matters most—families. Everyone needs a roof, and roofing professionals have specialized knowledge to protect their communities.
